

PASSPORT OF THE EDUCATIONAL PROGRAM

8D01907 - Training in special psychology

THE PURPOSE OF THE EDUCATIONAL PROGRAM

To train doctors of philosophy (PhD) who have in-depth knowledge in the field of special pedagogy in accordance with the highest academic standards in a competitive educational environment, who have a civil position, are able to formulate and solve modern scientific and practical problems, and successfully carry out pedagogical, research and management activities.

FIELD OF PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITY

- educating;*
- methodical work;*
- research; -*
social and communicative

LEARNING OUTCOMES (RO)

LO1-demonstrates knowledge of the modern scientific paradigm in the field of education of persons with special educational needs;

LO2 - generates new conceptual ideas and directions for the development of pedagogical science in connection with the modern educational paradigm;

LO 3 - applies the methodology and methods of scientific research in special psychology, is able to correlate the main scientific concepts of pedagogy with the general problems of the development of science and society;

LO4 - develops methodological support for the system of special and inclusive education, creates innovative, including information, technologies for optimizing the correctional and educational process; LO5 - solves the corresponding functional tasks in state and non-state (managerial, research, scientific and educational, mass media and other) organizations related to the training and education of persons with special educational needs;

LO6 - carries out activities to raise public awareness of the problems of persons with special educational needs and to participate in the realization of their rights;

LO7 - organizes interaction with social partners (including foreign ones) in solving urgent correctional and pedagogical tasks, to establish and develop international scientific cooperation;

LO8-demonstrates knowledge about the priorities of modern educational policy in the field of training scientific and pedagogical personnel of universities and teachers of the special education system.