

PASSPORT OF THE EDUCATIONAL PROGRAM

8D03117 - Clinical and Social Psychology

OBJECTIVES OF THE EDUCATIONAL PROGRAM

Preparation of PhD doctors capable of: conducting research in the field of clinical and social psychology, solving professional tasks in the field of education, healthcare and social practices

FIELD OF PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITY

1. Educational (pedagogical): training and emotional development of students, psychological support of the learning and upbringing process, diagnostics, correction, forecasting of the results of psychological and pedagogical activity, study and dissemination of innovative experience in the field of health psychology.
2. Educational: selection and use of a set of forms and methods to optimize a healthy lifestyle, harmonization of mental and psychological development of students, compliance with professional and corporate ethics.
3. Educational and technological: designing a socio-psychological service in an educational institution, using innovative technologies in the educational process to correct the mental, psychological and somatic health of students.
4. Socio-pedagogical: creating favorable conditions in educational institutions necessary to increase mental resources and adaptive capabilities of students.
5. Experimental research: carries out the formulation of the problem, tasks, methods and goals of scientific research, based on the analysis of the achievements of modern clinical and medical psychological science and practice.
6. Organizational and managerial: the ability and readiness to implement and evaluate the educational process and environment in the preparation of psychological personnel, taking into account interactive and digital teaching methods and innovative technologies.

LEARNING OUTCOMES (LO)

LO1 - understands the social significance of the profession of clinical and social psychologist, organizes research activities, taking into account domestic and international achievements.

LO2 - complies with the ethical code of a psychologist when providing psychological assistance for negative mental states and maladaptive behavior of children and adults.

LO3 – practically interprets the bio-socio-psychological concept of personality development, owns the methods of socio-psychological expertise, psychotherapeutic techniques and techniques.

LO4 – substantiates the psychological diagnosis taking into account the biological, social, cognitive and affective components of the object under study.

LO5 – analyzes individual and group cultural and social variables that determine people's behavior in society, owns methods of psychotherapeutic influences.

LO6 – creates and modifies new methods in applied activities in the field of social and clinical psychology and scientifically substantiates them in publications of highly rated journals.

LO7 – applies the skills of diagnosis, examination, counseling and psychocorrection, provides clinical and psychological assistance in crisis and extreme situations.

LO8 – collects anamnesis of life and disorders, description of mental status, applies methods of pathopsychological diagnosis and examination.