

PASSPORT OF THE EDUCATIONAL PROGRAM

- 8D03101 – International relations

PURPOSE OF THE EDUCATIONAL PROGRAM

Training of professional scientists with deep knowledge in the field of world politics, international relations in accordance with the highest academic standards in a competitive educational environment, capable of formulating and solving modern scientific and practical problems, successfully carrying out pedagogical, research and management activities.

AREA OF PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITY

Research activities, government regulation, political and social expertise and monitoring, pedagogical activities

LEARNING OUTCOMES (LO)

PO1 - carries out a scientific analysis of the current state of the problematic research material of the entire complex of international relations and foreign policy based on the generalization of scientific achievements of various theories, approaches, directions.

PO2 - complies with the principles of professional scientific ethics, uses knowledge of the subject scientific environment, control and measuring instruments, system development trends and regulatory legal acts in professional activities;

PO3 - uses classical and modern methodological principles in organizing and conducting scientific research in various fields of international relations;

PO4 - demonstrates the skills of analytical, expert and predictive activities in order to study the basic laws of processes and phenomena of an international nature;

PO5 - analyzes, processes, interprets, systematizes and summarizes scientific information using the methodology and methods of social sciences, and observing the principles, norms and research tools of a scholar in international affairs;

PO6 - modifies, creates new methods of research and applied activities in the field of scientific and professional activities;

PO7 - applies the skills of critical analysis, the ability to overcome the formed stereotypes;

PO8 - effectively uses information (digital) technologies in the subject area.