

PASSPORT OF THE EDUCATIONAL PROGRAM

• 8D04101-Economy

PURPOSE OF THE EDUCATIONAL PROGRAM

Training of specialists with a high level of general and professional culture, capable of self-development, social adaptation, as well as for solving problems related to the rational use of resources, increasing the economic efficiency of the field of postgraduate education.

FIELD OF PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITY

Education and business, as well as research and production and management activities, state regulation of the economy

LEARNING OUTCOMES (LO)

LO1 - applies effective research methods in the field of economics, plans and solves problems of its own professional and personal development;

LO2 - uses innovative technologies in its professional activities, identifies and formulates current scientific problems, independently plans and conducts experimental work, presents research results;

LO3 - organizes the educational process of various forms in a higher educational institution, manages the team, influences the formation of team goals, evaluates the quality of the results of its activities;

LO4 - demonstrates readiness to teach in higher education programs;

LO5 - performs scientific analysis of modern achievements in the field of scientific and pedagogical activity, identifies and formulates current scientific problems, independently plans and conducts experimental work, presents the results of research;

LO6 - solves research problems, selects experimental methods, interprets and presents the results of scientific research in reports, publications and public discussions;

LO7 - participates in negotiations and makes presentations in a foreign language at international seminars and enters into discussions in situations of scientific and professional communication, uses modern methods and technologies of scientific communication in the state and foreign languages;

LO8 - critically analyzes and evaluates modern scientific achievements, generates new ideas in solving research and practical problems, organizes the work of the research team in the scientific field corresponding to the direction of training of the student.