PASSPORT OF THE EDUCATIONAL PROGRAM

- 8D03106-REGIONAL STUDIES

| | |
|---|---|
| PURPOSE OF THE EDUCATIONAL PROGRAM | Training of the teaching specialist doctor of philosophy (PhD) social Sciences, interdisciplinary orientation to the sphere of higher, postgraduate education and science, able to develop regional studies expert assessment in analytical, research centers and the media, is able to solve professional problems. |
| AREA OF PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITY | In the field of analytical and research activities:1. Collection of material by areas of specialization with the help of modern technologies;2. qualified analysis of regional processes;3. work with scientific and methodological, analytical literature;4. in the field of organizational and managerial activities. |

LEARNING OUTCOMES (LO)

LO1 - "Regional Studies" demonstrates a systematic understanding of the subject area, owns new methods and techniques of quantitative regional studies and the methodology of scientific research of international and regional processes used in this subject area.

LO2 - able to think systematically and holistically perceive modern geopolitical processes, able to organize, plan and implement the research process in the field of regional studies, analyzing special information and competently formulating appropriate conclusions and conclusions.

LO3 - ready to critically analyze, evaluate and compare various theoretical concepts about the processes of international cooperation taking place at all levels, including in Central Asia; factors of regional integration in Central Asia.

LO4 - ready to generate my new scientific ideas for the scientific community, to present my conclusions and conclusions about demographic factors of regional development, about new criteria for regional security in Central Asia.

LEARNING OUTCOMES (LO)

LO5 - ready for scientific work; evaluates and determines the value of a particular product for the source analysis of foreign policy processes in the countries of Central Asia; determines the role and place of Central Asia in the modern system of international relations.

LO6 - able to navigate the global and regional (international, demographic, migration) processes, demonstrate an understanding of the mechanisms of mutual influence of the planetary environment, the world economy and world politics.

LO7 - ready to develop an expert opinion of a regional expert, using in practice the methods of forecasting and planning the regional development of Central Asia.

LO8 - has the information competence to justify the transformation processes in various regions, including Central Asia, and the foreign policy strategies of global and regional actors in Central Asia..